Starting on March 30th (Monday), St. Marys Station Gallery will be offering the following art workshops for adults and kids WEEKLY:

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wed.	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
			Adult drawing (6-8pm) $30	Adult watercolour (6-8pm) $30	Adult watercolour (6-8pm) $30	Adult acrylic painting (9 am-12 noon) $30 Children's art (ages 7-13) (1-4pm) $30

Adult Acrylics:

This workshop series is geared towards intro-level participants wishing to learn the basics of painting in acrylics. If you always wanted to learn how to paint, now is your chance.

Children's Art:

This workshop series is customized to the interests of each child. Whether your child loves to paint, draw, work with watercolour, animation, collage, or basic print-making, they will receive guidance and strong art education that will help them develop their art (and have fun along the way).

Adult Drawing:

This workshop series is designed to help adults with their drawing skills in observational drawing. We will focus on reproducing what we see on the page in graphite, charcoal and other media. Again, this is a beginner class. However, if you do have some experience in drawing, come and join us. The instructor can customize teaching at a different level for you.

Adult Watercolour:

Whatever your skill level – newbie, or seasoned pro – there is something for you in this workshop series. Come and paint with us.

NOTE: These workshops are open to everyone. We believe it is important that art education is fun, supportive, and affordable. Don't be nervous about being a beginner in any medium. We nurture a positive and creative environment that is meant to encourage your art education journey.

Location: St. Marys Station Gallery

Classes run at a maximum of 8 participants. All classes will take place in the Studio at St. Marys Station Gallery. All materials and tools will be provided by the instructor.

Students can drop in at any time. However, it is recommended to attend as many classes as you can in a row to maximize your art education. We anticipate classes to run until June, 2026.
